

Where You Live

You Gave, We Matched, Great Things Happened!

hat an incredible year! 2015 was marked with intense activity driven by the Hancock County Community Foundation's (HCCF) desire to maximize a matching opportunity made possible by a $1 million Lilly Endowment grant called GIFT VI. HCCF allocated $675,000 to match unrestricted gifts $1 for $1. Unrestricted resources are critically important to the well-being of our community and allow the Board of Directors the discretion to fund initiatives that enrich Hancock County, as well as, provide financial resources that strengthen organizations that provide vital services. You gave, we matched, and the challenge was met by April, 2015.

The remaining $325,000 was allocated to match those gifts restricted for specific purposes. Per grant requirements, restricted gifts could be matched .50 for $1. The Board allocated $200,000 of the grant to strategically leverage the growth of endowed operating funds of nonprofit organizations. As a result, the endowments of the education foundations of Eastern Hancock, Greenfield-Central, Mt. Vernon, and Southern Hancock experienced 78% growth during a matching frenzy leading up to the celebration of Hancock County's 187th birthday on March 1. HCCF granted another $27,751 for immediate use as described on page 3.

In March, HCCF and twelve nonprofits began gearing up for Match Day. Leveraging $90,000 of the grant, caring people donated $226,877.28 in 24 hours on July 24. With the match, nonprofits who normally struggle to grow funds that ensure operating sustainment, experienced astounding growth of $311,238.97. HCCF granted an additional $80,000 to the organizations for immediate use as described on page 4.

In 2015, HCCF embarked upon a mission to address a deficit in kindergarten readiness. In 2014, 28% of Hancock County children entering kindergarten scored below or well below literacy standards. After much research and input from experienced educators, HCCF identified Imagination Library as the early childhood literacy program that would be made available to all children born on or after January 1. Imagination Library, a program of the Dollywood Foundation, provides a volume of 60 age appropriate books delivered monthly to the homes of enrolled children. The program must be provided to families free of charge and is truly a gift from the community to its children. To sustain the program, HCCF launched a $2 million dollar endowment effort in November. Upon maturity, income from this endowment will generate income to pay the $26 per child, per year, cost of the program for all time. You gave, we matched, and $300,000 of our $2 million endowment goal was met.

Thanks to your generosity, HCCF met Lilly Endowment's challenge to engage our community and capture the full $1 million grant. In the pages of this report, you will find the names of 1,840 donors who gave 4,100 gifts and a summary of $1,096,844 grants made possible through the generosity of caring people. Thank you for joining us in our never ending guest to enrich and enhance life through philanthropy.

he mission of Meals on Wheels of Hancock County is very clear: Improve the health and quality of life of seniors so that no one is left hungry or isolated. A simple statement, but a daunting problem. Kathleen Vahle, Executive Director, recently presented Meals on Wheels America's research to share the need in our community.

TOO MANY SENIORS IN INDIANA ARE LEFT BEHIND, ALONE AND HUNGRY, STRUGGLING TO STAY INDEPENDENT AND HEALTHY.

328,057 are isolated, living alone

140,684 are threatened by hunger

362,858 are living in or near poverty

Nationally, 1 IN 6 seniors struggles with hunger

Meals on Wheels of Hancock County served 19,056 meals to 121 clients in 2015. This could only be accomplished by the 195 volunteers who donated over 3,300 hours. It takes about 140 volunteers to make 700 deliveries and provide approximately 1,200 meals each month. By increasing the opportunity for independence through meal delivery, Meals on Wheels America's research confirms:

MEALS ON WHEELS DELIVERS THE SUPPORT THAT KEEPS SENIORS IN THEIR OWN HOMES, WHERE THEY WANT TO BE.

"The senior citizens we serve are the same people who helped shape our nation. Using their minds, ingenuity and hard work, they were there when we needed them. They fought for our freedom, invented machines, developed medicines, dared to dream and ensured a brighter future for us all. Their stories are our stories," says Kathleen.

HCCF has supported the mission of Meals on Wheels with grants of over $88,000.

In 2001, HCCF was the first to provide the start-up funding needed for the establishment of a local office, staffing and meal deliveries. Ongoing funding has been provided for staff training, volunteer gas cards, consulting, and client financial assistance.

Kathleen shared the many ways volunteers can get involved: deliver meals, pack meals, financially sponsor a client, consider board membership, and attend fundraisers. For more information she can be reached at 317-477-4345 or Kathleen@mealsonwheelsonline.org. Meals on Wheels is located at 1133 W. Main Street, Suite C, Greenfield.

Preparing Youth for Kindergarten

Each year, HCCF is proud to honor the memory of Martha Beckenholdt by awarding a junior from one of the four Hancock County public high schools who exhibits Martha's qualities...outstanding contributions of time, talent, and energy to philanthropic endeavors. A $500 grant in the recipient's name is donated by HCCF to a charity of the student's choice.

Emily Jones, daughter of Jeff and Stephanie Jones and a student at Greenfield-Central High School received the 2015 award for her work with the Kindergarten 101 Program. The program provides a week-long kindergarten experience for children and families who have been unable to take part in preschool education opportunities. Emily has volunteered with the Kindergarten 101 Program for four years, donating over 300 hours of her time. Her volunteer activities included assisting with the preparation of the program and working with the children to become acclimated with school environment.

Additionally, the Eugene & Marilyn Glick Foundation matched HCCF's grant with an additional $500. In honor of Emily's award, Hancock County Purdue Extension received a grant total of $1,000 for the Kindergarten 101 Program.

Enriching the Quality of Our Place

Animal Welfare

In 2008, a gift arrived at HCCF that would forever impact the welfare of Hancock County animals and the organizations that provide care to them. Through her estate gift, Mary Kingery created the The William Harold and Mary Katherine Kingery Friends of Domestic Animals Endowment. Each year, income from the fund is made available to organizations whose mission is to provide care, shelter, and adoption services for domestic animals. Partners for Animal Welfare or PAWS received a $10,525 grant from the fund to support Operation Fix-It, a Trap/Neuter/Return (TNR) program and rent expenses.

In the four years that PAWS has offered Operation Fix-It, 463 individuals, businesses, and families from 21 communities have had over 1,400 cats spayed or neutered and vaccinated for rabies. Hancock County residents benefit from the program through the reduced cost for the surgery. "PAWS programs benefit EVERY Hancock County resident by assuring that there are fewer homeless pets and community cats running at large and that community cats are healthy and vaccinated against rabies," said Nancy Rubino, PAWS Executive Director.

PAWS rescued sister kittens, Paris and Pandora, who await adoption. Their mother was spayed under the Feline Fix Program.

In addition to the Fix-It program, PAWS annually rescues, cares for, and rehomes over 300 cats, kittens, dogs and puppies. The PAWS Pet Food Pantry annually provides over 5,000 pounds of free pet food and other pet supplies to elderly, handicapped, temporarily disabled, unemployed, and low income Hancock County pet owners. "This program empowers these pet owners to keep their pets rather than being forced to give them up," shares Nancy.

Leaving a Legacy

Sharon Yates

hose who knew Sharon enjoyed her kind and caring presence. She grew up in Gary, Indiana and later moved to the Indianapolis area. Sharon and her husband, Tom, were members of St. John United Church of Christ in Cumberland where they volunteered many hours. They also spent countless hours volunteering at the Altenheim

Sharon had a soft spot for children and animals, especially cats and dogs. Her passion was evident in the gift she left through her estate to create a permanent fund for the care of animals. Income from the Sharon Yates Endowment Fund for the Care of Animals will forever support Hancock County organizations addressing the well-being of domestic animals, including but not limited to shelter, adoption, and spay/neuter services

Sharon and her husband enjoyed traveling, especially going to Florida in the colder months. After the deaths of her husband and three children. Sharon devoted her time to close friends and to causes she cared about. Her philanthropy aligned with her love of community as defined in the Sharon Yates Community Development Fund which provides unrestricted income allowing HCCF the discretion to make grants that meet needs and opportunities as they evolve and change in our community over time.

Sharon used the simplest form of estate planning to direct the creation of these funds upon her death. By naming the Hancock County Community Foundation in her Will and directing the creation of the aforementioned funds in the language of her Will, HCCF will forever serve as an instrument of her generosity. Through careful stewardship and diligent administration, many people and organizations will continue to benefit from Sharon's generosity.

Valeda Foust

lifelong resident of Hancock County, Valeda was born on April 29, 1911. After graduating from Westland High School, she attended Indiana University to earn a degree in teaching. Valeda taught business, typing, shorthand and English at Hancock Central High School and Greenfield High School. After 25 years of dedicated service, she retired in 1970. Valeda and her husband, "Peanut" Everett lived on a farm and raised black angus cattle in eastern Hancock County until his death in 1991.

Valeda was a member of Greenfield Christian Church, Miriam No. 64 Order of the Eastern Star, a member of the Hancock County Retired Teachers Association, and a member of the Hancock Regional Hospital Guild. She is remembered for her love of reading, knitting hats for nieces and nephews, camping, and participation in Bible studies. "Valeda was a huge IU fan and loved IU basketball," shared niece Linda Campton.

Faith and family influenced Valeda's charitable intentions. When meeting with her professional advisors in 2003, she was very mindful of her church community and the well-being of her sister-in-law, Daisy. Valeda established a revocable trust that made partial distribution to HCCF in 2008 to create the Valeda M. Foust Charitable Endowment Fund. The annual income from the fund supports the ministerial work of Greenfield Christian Church.

Also in 2003, Valeda arranged that Daisy would receive income from the remaining balance of the trust until her death. Daisy Foust passed away in December, 2015, and the remainder of Valeda's trust came to HCCF as an additional gift to the endowment fund benefitting Greenfield Christian Church.

Valeda passed away in 2008, but her legacy lives on. Her planning and purpose exemplifies the ability to care for our loved ones AND make a tremendous charitable impact...forever.

A Charitable Bequest in Your Will or Trust

The simplest and most common way to leave your legacy is to designate a gift or percent of your estate to set up or give to an existing endowment fund; in some cases, you may receive a substantial reduction in federal gift and estate taxes while supporting a charitable cause. Include a simple statement in your will or trust such as:

"I give [a specific $ sum] or [percentage of my estate] or [number of shares of stock of X _ Fund, a component fund of the Hancock County Community Company] to the Foundation, 312 E. Main Street, Greenfield, Indiana." Optional, additional language: "The Hancock County Community Foundation, Inc. is an Indiana nonprofit corporation exempt from federal income taxes under Internal Revenue Code section 501(c)(3), a public charity and accordingly an appropriate institution within which to establish a charitable fund."
