Hancock County Community Foundation Welcomes Carol Reynolds

GREENFIELD, Ind. (May 23, 2017) – Carol Reynolds joined the Hancock County Community Foundation (HCCF) on February 23 as Administrative Associate. She hails from Clifton, Ohio, and has lived in Greenfield for 28 years.

Carol has a rich background in non-profit work. She served as the interim program coordinator with Meals on Wheels of Hancock County where she created and maintained records for volunteers and clients. As a library assistant for the Hancock County Public Library, she worked with patrons on library collection and technology, created posters and advertising materials, and instructed patrons on electronic reading devices. She also served as the children's ministry director at Brown's Chapel Wesleyan Church. She is a long-term volunteer with the Kenneth Butler Memorial Soup Kitchen and currently serves as secretary on the board of the directors.

Carol has also worked in education, first as a media center assistant for Eastern Hancock Community School Corporation. She was also an academic support associate with the Greenfield branch of Ivy Tech Community College.

On a limited contract basis, Carol continues her work as a search engine analyst with Leapforce to test and make improvements to search algorithms with engineers.

Carol's responsibilities with HCCF include bookkeeping, database management, and scholarship and grant-making support.

HCCF works with caring individuals, families, and organizations to create or grow existing permanent funds called endowments. These funds generate income that is distributed in the form of grants and scholarships to enrich and enhance life in Hancock County, as well as support the donor's favorite charitable causes, both at home and afar forever. HCCF has granted over $11.4 million since its inception in 1992.
