

PRIVACY STATEMENT

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Your right to privacy is very important to us. We recognize that providing Community Foundation of Hancock County with your personal information is an act of trust. When you visit Community Foundation of Hancock County online, you remain anonymous, as we do not require registration to view our website or access information.

We may occasionally ask for your feedback via surveys or other communications to better understand your interests and needs. We will also request information through online forms used to register for a foundation event or request use of our conference facilities. The foundation does not share or make public any personal information gathered through our website.

PUBLIC INFORMATION

- Under IRS Code, the following foundation documents are public information:
 - IRS Forms 990 and affiliated schedules for the past three years.
 - Exemption letter from the IRS.
- Lists of our donors, other than those published in the annual report, are not available to the public. We do not reveal the name of anonymous donors to the recipient of a grant.

COMMUNICATIONS

If at any time you wish to stop receiving Community Foundation of Hancock County's electronic newsletters or other communications, or to be removed from our email list, you may unsubscribe from that list as explained in each message. Community Foundation of Hancock County will not give your email addresses to other organizations.

QUESTIONS AND COMMENTS

We welcome comments and questions on this policy. To share feedback or to request information from the foundation, please send an email to President Mary Gibble at Mary@CelebrateHancock.org or write to:
